PRECISION IN SOUND

INTEGRATED INNOVATION

The i1 is the ultimate in-wall solution for your high end needs. It seamlessly blends into your wall and is perfect for both private and commercial spaces delivering the stellar sound quality Manger is widely known for.

Hearing is believing

The almost invisible i1 offers the unique Manger sound transducer the ultimate environment for the best possible audio reproduction for in-wall installations thanks to high-end materials and thorough research. Besides its stellar audiophile features, it also allows for a quick and easy workflow during the installation and comes equipped with everything you need during the setup process.

Versatile setup

The i1 can be used as a stereo system, but also gives you the possibilities to turn it into multi-channel for your home theatre desires while perfectly retaining your living room qualities.

Cover it up

With the i1 you now have the choice to completely hide your speaker and apply a clever foam covering that is available in white, black, silver and anthracite. You simply stick the cover on the speaker and it will neatly stay in place thanks to a hidden magnet system.

Completely hidden

A clever and unique mechanism inside the box allows you to adjust the driver, creating a fully flush surface with your wall finish even when you cover it up with one of the magnetic Manger covers!
